Mr. Lewis' Weekly Round-Up....

Happy Friday to everyone! I'm more hopeful than ever that Mother Nature will cut us some slack as we've now extended our school year to June 4th! I apologize for not being able to send push notifications during the inclement weather, but the developers were in the process of upgrading their servers.

Within a matter of weeks, our new front door security system will be activated. All visitors will be required to press a button to signal the front office, and present a photo identification to the exterior door camera before being allowed into the building via an unlock button. This small inconvenience provides another layer of security to the students, parents and staff at Jim Stone.

I will send notification once it is operational.

Have a fantastic weekend!

Mark Lewis
